Hello everyone. I hope your Lent is off to a great start. We are already 1/3 of the way through Lent. Have you taken hold of the grace?

I want to remind everyone to go to confession during Lent. As has been said, we have extended confession hours every weekend, 30 minutes before and after every Saturday and Sunday Mass at all the Churches as well as every day Monday-Friday at St Peter at 1145am. There is no excuse not to go. So go.

Remember we have to go at least one time per year in order to be able to go to Holy Communion.

Sometimes people are not sure what to confess or are maybe not sure they have any sins. Well to help you with that, please read through the examination of conscience attached to this bulletin. If anyone can read through this list and honestly say they have not committed any of these sins, then you are a saint and we should tell Pope Francis so you can be canonized.

But likely, if you are like the rest of us, when you read through the list you are surprised how many sins you commit.

Sin offends God. In fact, even one sin is enough to warrant eternal separation from God, hell, forever. But in His mercy God gave His Son to take the place of our punishment. This sorrowful event is what happens on Good Friday, which we are preparing for during Lent.

But we have to confess, and God places His Son in our stead.

Have a good week of Lenten discipline. Prayer, fasting, almsgiving and confession.

If this continual reminding is becoming annoying, like a nagging parent, then Mother Church is doing her job.

Fr Rossi

There will be NO Penance service during Lent. Confessions will be heard before and after all Masses and/or by appointment.

The COUNCIL OF WOMEN YARD AND BAKE SALE will be here on May 12. Now is not too early to start your spring cleaning and donate your usable items. We are now accepting calls and making arrangements to get your donations to our storage shed. If you plan to move or downsize we love what you have! Just call Dianne Cassady 840-8642 or Pat Hinton 746-5842 and we will be glad to make arrangements to get it to our shed. We are unable to sell electronics, adult clothes or mattresses.

The Knights of Columbus Council 6936 will be having a Brunswick Stew Sale on Saturday March 10 from noon until 2:00. Quarts of stew will be $8.00. Stew may be picked up on that day in the tent in front of St. Johns. To ensure that you don't miss out you may reserve a quart(s) in advance by signing up for the sale in the commons area. If you are unable to pick up your reserved order on Saturday, March 10th, you may pick up your order after any of the weekend masses. Any quarts left over will also be available on a first come first serve basis after all reserved orders have been filled. Thank you for your support.
