Yesterday (Saturday) was the feast day of St. Mary Magdalene.

It is a big day. The Pope loves Mary Magdalene. Many saints love Mary Magdalene.

Why?

Because everybody has a little Mary Magdalene in them.

Mary Magdalene lived a tough life. She made some serious mistakes. Deep down inside her, there was some real need for healing.

But Mary Magdalene knew where to go for that healing. In fact, she became one of the Lord's best friends and most devout followers.

Why? Because as the scriptures say, the one who had been forgiven much, loves much. Mary Magdalene loved the Lord very much because she knew the depths of her depravity. She knew the depths of the wickedness that resided within her. She knew she needed help.

But she also knew that Jesus knew about that wickedness inside of her. She knew that he was completely aware of it and loved her just the same. She knew that there was forgiveness for her even beyond whatever evil might have been inside her.

And that made her very, very, very loyal. She was so loyal to Jesus because, in spite of her undeservedness, he was even more loyal to her.

The lesson for us is never to run from the evil inside. (p.s. it is there). We never have to run from it but rather it should be the occasion to love God more, who wipes away our sin when we go to him seeking help to change. Obviously people go wrong when they say, 'because God loves me so much and accepts who I am, I could do whatever I want.' That is obviously ridiculous. After all, Mary Magdalene stopped the sins she was committing. Otherwise it would have been presumption of God's mercy.

But it is right for us to say, 'because God loves me so much, I would never want to betray that love by returning to any type of life or activity that He does not accept.' These words characterize the sentiments of Mary Magdalene as evidenced by her change in lifestyle subsequent to her encounter with God's mercy.

Mary Magdalene is hope for a world in need. Is there anyone who cannot relate to St. Mary Magdalene?

Registrations for Religious Education are now open

Parents are called to be the primary educators of their children in all things, including faith. We understand that parenting can be challenging when you have to juggle many activities and obligations for your kids. Because we know that you recognize the importance of faith in your family, we are here to help you in your child's faith formation. Don't forget to register for the new school year. Registration forms are available on the counter in the commons. Please feel free to give me a call (737-8028) or email me

(pmatheny@stjohnscatholicchurch.org) with any questions you may have. With kind regards, Paulita Matheny

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION REGISTRATION

St John's Religious Education Registration has officially started. August 20 is the deadline to register your children. All registrations submitted after the deadline will incur a late fee of $30 per family. Please call the office 737-8028 or email pmatheny@stjohnscatholicchurch.org.

CATECHISTS NEEDED

WE ARE LOOKING FOR YOU. All of us who work in children's ministry know that the Holy Spirit works through us and that the children and families we serve grow in faith and in true Christ likeness. But in order for us to continue to successfully teach and share the word of GOD to his people, we will need more catechists. No previous experience is needed. If you are interested and want to know more, or if you are willing to volunteer, please call at 737-8028 or email at pmatheny@stjohnscatholicchurch.org.

Ministry Sunday

In September the St. Johns parish will be holding a Ministry Sunday. We will provide an opportunity for all parish organizations to set up a table with information on their organizations. Parishioners will be afforded the opportunity to meet with representatives of those organizations after the weekend masses. Christ's call to go and make disciples was given to every baptized Christian. Not just to a few. Please take the time over the next two months to prayerfully consider what is God's call to you and how He would have you minister to a needy world. If you are a representative of an organization please contact either the church office or Dan Mages. The contact information for the church office is listed in the bulletin. Dan Mages may be contacted at danielrmages@yahoo.com or 804-328-1602.
