I pray you had a great week!

For today, for the pastor message, I want to say a word about the feast day today. Today is the feast of the Holy Trinity. Today we remember that we pray to one God that exists eternally in three persons. God is, was, and will always be a Father, a Son and a Holy Spirit.

The reason I and others grasp for these analogies when trying to understand the Trinity is because we like to know what we are talking about. In fact, when we don't have a handle on things, we are uncomfortable...like standing on one foot. Someone could just come and push us over and we would fall really easily. In the same way, if someone were to 'poke' us by challenging us about this doctrine of the Trinity...we would have trouble defending it...because we do not fully grasp it...and that makes us feel indefensible.

But it does require a peaceful and trustful acceptance that we cannot understand everything about God. A child cannot understand nuclear science, but he has a better chance of understanding that than we do of grasping the nature of God (the Trinity is the inner workings of God). Spouses say they still don't understand the spouse they've been married to for 50 years...and they're human! So don't feel too bad if you don't understand what's going on inside of God.

What is even possibly more amazing to think about is that when we go to Heaven, we enter in to the core of that relationship, inside those inner workings of God...wow...talk about make your head spin!!!

St. John's Summer Bible Study is back. We will be studying the Gospel of Mark this summer beginning on Monday evening June 19 at 7:00 in the conference room in the back of the church and meeting on most subsequent Mondays. We will once more be using the Ignatius Catholic Bible Study. For more information please contact Dan Mages at 804-328-1602 or danielrmages@yahoo.com. There is also a flyer on the Knights of Columbus bulletin board in the narthex which has additional details. Please join us as we study the roots of our faith and untangle some of those passages of scripture that may have had you scratching your head and saying, "now what in the world does that mean?"

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is designed for those who are not baptized or who have been baptized in another faith tradition and wish to enter the Catholic Church.

Do you find yourself coming to Mass and wanting to be more involved in the community?
