Pastor Message

Today is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, Corpus Christi.

This is one of the most amazing and beautiful feast days of the Catholic Church.

Every week, millions and maybe even billions of people come to Catholic Churches all over the world for the main purpose of receiving what we proclaim today: that Jesus Christ, the King of the Universe, comes to us under the disguise of simple bread and wine, for us to consume. If we could see and entirely understand what it does to our spirits and souls when we receive Holy Communion, we would crawl to Church on our hands and knees before we would let slip by the opportunity to consume the Holy Eucharist.

I am very happy today because in addition to celebrating this wonderful feast day, we in the Diocese of Richmond have also to celebrate that three young men, this very day, will be celebrating their first Mass as priests. Yesterday (Saturday), 3 transitional deacons, Deacon John Baab (who was our seminarian last summer), Deacon Nicholas Redmond, and Deacon James O'Reily, were ordained to the priesthood and will celebrate their first Masses today.

It is the greatest privilege of a priest's life to celebrate the Mass. Nothing else compares with this for a priest.

Here are some quotes for your devotion.

"You come to me and unite Yourself intimately to me under the form of nourishment. Your Blood now runs in mine, Your Soul, Incarnate God, compenetrates mine, giving courage and support. What miracles! Who would have ever imagined such!" - St. Maximilian Kolbe

"Receive Communion often, very often...there you have the sole remedy, if you want to be cured. Jesus has not put this attraction in your heart for nothing..." - St. Therese of Lisieux

"I throw myself at the foot of the Tabernacle like a dog at the foot of his Master." - St. John Vianney

"All the good works in the world are not equal to the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass because they are the works of men; but the Mass is the work of God. Martyrdom is nothing in comparison for it is but the sacrifice of man to God; but the Mass is the sacrifice of God for man." - St. John Vianney, Cure d'Ars

"If I can give you any advice, I beg you to get closer to the Eucharist and to Jesus... We must pray to Jesus to give us that tenderness of the Eucharist." -Mother Teresa of Calcutta

"The holy Eucharist contains the whole spiritual treasure of the Church, that is, Christ himself.... He who is the living bread, whose flesh, vivified by the Holy Spirit and vivifying, gives life to men," - Vatican II

"Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament is the Living Heart of each of our parishes," - Pope Paul VI

"It would be easier for the world to survive without the sun than to do so without the Holy Mass." - Padre Pio
Fr Rossi
