Pastor Message

Today I want to teach about a way that the Old Testament talks about the Catholic Church. Maybe you are thinking that the Old Testament doesn't have anything to say about the Catholic Church, but that is not correct. Even though the Old Testament talks about stuff before the coming of Christ, it nevertheless gives us insights about the Catholic Church. It gives us truths about the Catholic Church, And I am going to show you how to discover those truths.

This is a method long taught to us by saints and spiritual fathers of the Church on how to interpret what is written in the Old Testament. Let's use the first reading today as an example.

The first reading this weekend has very poetic and embellished language to describe Jerusalem. Jerusalem was the dwelling place of God. But ever since Christ came and founded the Church and sent the Holy Spirit, the dwelling place of God became the Church, the Catholic Church.

Thus, the fathers and saints in early times after the coming of Christ discovered a beautiful way to understand the Catholic Church by considering what the Old Testament had to say about Jerusalem. So when the Old Testament talks about 'Jerusalem,' you can think of it spiritually as speaking about the Catholic Church. The first reading, for example, when it's talking about 'Jerusalem,' you can go back and replace that word with Catholic Church and you will get a whole new meaning of the Scripture reading. Thus you get phrases such as "Rejoice with the Catholic Church and be glad because of her, all you her love her; exult, exult with her, all you who were mourning over her!" You also get God saying "I will spread prosperity over the Catholic Church like a river, and the wealth of the nations like an overflowing torrent." Finally you get, "as nurslings, you shall be carried in her arms and fondled in her lap, as a mother comforts her child, so will I comfort you; in the Catholic Church you shall find your comfort."

Wow what a difference!!! What new meaning the Old Testament has!!! I just replaced the word Jerusalem with Catholic Church. It's a way to spiritually see how God was talking about the founding of the Catholic Church when in the Old Testament the writers were thinking about the great city of Jerusalem. That is why we call the Catholic Church the 'New Jerusalem.' It is the new dwelling place of God.
