Message from Fr. Maxwell

The Marian Assumption explained briefly.

The theological term of Jesus being taken up to his Father in the heavens is called Ascension (Lk. 24:50-51), whilst Assumption is the term used for Mary in joining her son after her earthly life. This is due to these reasons:

- * Her association with Jesus, was so much that she shared fully in his glory with her whole body
- * Her preservation from original sin because of her fulness of grace as a gift from God (Lk. 1:28)
- * Her surrendering to the divine will by accepting the Lord's message through the angel Gabriel to become the new Eve (Lk. 1:26ff)
- * By Becoming instrumental and supportive to Jesus in his ministry (Jn. 2:1-12)
- * Became the Ark of the Covenant by being the dwelling place of the Word, Jesus (Jn. 1:14; Lk. 11:27-28; Rev. 11:19)
- * Being identified as the mother of the male child (the messiah) to rule the nations (Rev. 12:5ff)
- * By being taken to heaven by her son to be with him (Rev. 12:1) as she was escorted by an army of heavenly holy angels.
- * she was exempted from the corruption of the tomb and raised up to glory (Pope Pius XII)

Thus, the assumption is always celebrated worldwide:

- * to show that all generations will call her (Mary) blessed (Lk. 1:48)
- * to indicate to all Christians that bodily resurrection and ascension into heaven is a pointer to listen to God's word and keep it. (Mk. 3:31-35; Mt. 12:50)

Wishing you Happy feast.

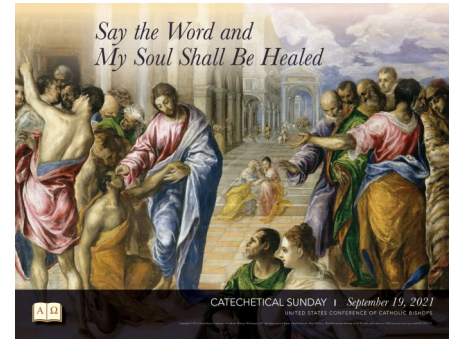

Fr. Maxwell
