From the Administrator's desk

The church by nature is missionary by preaching the Gospel as witnesses of Christ to everyone, as mandated by Jesus to his disciples: "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you"....(Mt. 28:19ff). This is why Catechetical Sunday is celebrated on third Sunday in the month of September every year:

- to reflect on the role that each person by virtue of baptism plays in handing on the faith and being a witness to the Gospel.
- for all Catholics to rededicate themselves to this mission as a community of faith.
- as a day set aside to give thanks to God and appreciate the faithful service of those who have volunteered their time as Catechists to teach the Catholic faith and share the gospel message and the church's teachings with others (like the children).

This year the theme is: "Say the word and my soul shall be healed." It is so by acknowledging a world struggling to be healed from the COVID 19 Pandemic, as the church shares in the concern of those who have been infected, sick and suffering. But with Jesus as the Divine Physician, all things are possible including complete healing when he enters under our roof.

Fr. Maxwell

CATECHETICAL SUNDAY

September 19, 2021

"Say the Word and My Soul Shall Be Healed."

This weekend, parishes across the country will honor those who share in the evangelizing and teaching mission of the Church through a special rite of commissioning and blessing. Here at St John the following catechists will be commissioned to share the faith of the Church with the adults, families, youth, and children of the parish this year: Janice Mayer, Katherine Rolon, Julie Hinman, Sharon Lucas, Neilann Brown, Vanessa Cubas, Mary Miskimon, Josephine Austin, Dan Mages, Ed Gillikin, Rodulfo Velazquez, Emiliano Velazquez, Zoila Arteaga, Maria Alejo, Monica Alejo, Breanna England, and Paulita Matheny.

From the Knights of Columbus

By now all of you gardeners have gotten a little tired of zucchini, squash, tomatoes and an over abundance of whatever you planted in your garden this year. Why not share that over abundance with your fellow parishioners. Please bring any fruits, vegetables or other produce from your garden that you do not need and place it in the basket in the back of church. Don't have a garden or something did not come in well this year? Be sure to pick up some produce someone else brought in to share with you and be sure to say a quick prayer for the one who brought it in. Sponsored by the Knights of Columbus.
