The Parochial Vicar's Point of View

Dear wonderful parishioners,

As I write this on All Souls' Day, I remember fondly both of my parents, Daniel and Suzanne, as well as my grandparents and great-grandparents, the aunts and uncles who have passed away, and my many teachers, priests, friends and parishioners who have died over the years. November is the month that we set aside to remember and pray for our deceased loved ones. When we remember that this life we live here on earth is not the end of the story, everything changes! How we live life, the choices we make, the plans we formulate... everything takes on a different aspect when we consider that we are meant for our heavenly homeland. Indeed, even how we view death changes... how we view the scary things of this life changes. Now I write this not to say, "Well, we're all going to heaven, so nothing matters." No, Jesus is clear about that – the road to heaven is narrow, He tells us. I am saying this because EVERYTHING matters! God cares about the most seemingly insignificant things in our lives as well as the biggest. We must take care that all of it is leading to the salvation of our souls and of the souls of our loved ones. So during this month of remembering the dead, let's pray for their salvation and do everything we can to stay close to Jesus and His Church, and help others stay close to Jesus and His Church, for the sake of our own salvation.

I must say, this last month of writing the (PV)² has been fun! I know that my writing is a little bit long, so please forgive me for that. I hope that you have been able to get a little bit out of it. By the time you read this, God-willing, Fr. Maxwell will be back with us and things here will be back to a little more normal! I look forward to our evening chats and good laughs by the kitchen counter. Let's hope he doesn't leave us for so long again any time soon!

May God bless all of you!

In Christ,

Fr. Redmond

FOR OUR VETERANS

"Father, please turn your gaze to those men and women who in their military service have sacrificed time, comfort, strength, ambition, health and prosperity for the peace and safety of family and friends and others they've never even known. Please reward them a hundredfold for all their sacrifice and service. Bless them far beyond all their expectations. Reward them richly for all they have given."

Getting Involved with Afghan Resettlement Efforts

As CCC continues to respond to the ongoing needs of families arriving from Afghanistan, the support of the Catholic community across the diocese will be so important. You can help give a fresh start to a refugee family in your community by providing critical supplies to meet needs. In an effort to showcase exactly what those needs are, we have created several Amazon Wish Lists. The wish lists are updated regularly and when an item is purchased, it is sent directly to our Refugee Resettlement team in Richmond. You can visit our Wish List site at www.cccofva.org/wish-list and find the Richmond link to see what is needed. Please consider giving in this way to support efforts in welcoming our brother & sisters from Afghanistan. If you have any questions, please contact John Elwell, CCC's Director of Parish Engagement, at John.Elwell@cccovfva.org.
