Do you know that St. John is one of the churches in our area that financially support FISH? Thanks to your donations either by using our pink envelope "social ministry outreach" or online giving, we can help Fish fulfill the needs of those in greatest need.

We also collect different items every month for their food pantry

What is FISH?

Eastern Henrico FISH emergency financial aid and support services.

Programs from Eastern Henrico FISH can help the working poor with their basic needs. There is assistance for seniors, immigrants, and the less fortunate in the county as well as Richmond. While the agency, which is made up of churches and congregations, will use donations or money raised from fund raisers and other sources for certain expenses, such as rent or food, much of the support will be in the form of referrals to other government benefits or local charities. The goal is to better coordinate the delivery of emergency assistance to low-income families.

From the Desk of the Administrator

Dear Parishioners,

On behalf of our cluster churches, St. Peter, St. Patrick and St. John, I would like to show my appreciation to you all for your response to the in-pew Diocesan Annual Appeal announced last week by the various Finance Council's at the end of all the masses.

By the grace of God, I am hopeful that St. Peter's goal of $9,580, St. Patrick's goal $11,140 and St. John's goal of $13,920 will be duly met this year.

The online giving which goes on throughout the whole year, still uses the QR Code <http://richmondcatholicfoundation.org/appeal/>.

Remember what Christ says that if anyone gives a cup of cold water to His disciple because of Him will surely not lose his/her reward (cf. Mt. 10:42), for giving is a reminder of the Lord's blessings on us through Christ, which has its basis/foundation on love, as a means of sharing what He has given to us including our financial resources.

Don't forget also that whatever you give, will go a long way to help the diocese in her evangelization mission of spreading the gospel of Christ.

God richly bless you all and your families.
Fr. Maxwell.
