The Parochial Vicar Point of View

Dear Wonderful Parishioners,

It is great to be back here writing to all of you as our beloved pastor takes a much deserved vacation back in his home of Ghana. I have missed having him around the rectory and am counting the days until his return in mid-September!

While the world seems to be telling us to “go big or go home!”, this week’s Gospel seems to be telling us that perhaps we need to be small, to allow ourselves to be last, to be the least. So instead of writing a very long PVPV letter, I will leave it at this: let us be humble. The Lord takes care of His little ones.

God bless you!

Fr. Redmond
