The Parochial Vicar Point of View

Dear Wonderful Parishioners and Visitors,

It is hard to believe that it is already time for Fr. Maxwell's return! While he is not back yet (at the time of my writing this), he should be (or better be!) back by the time you read this. Welcome back, Father!

In so many ways it feels like it has been way too long, but in other ways it seems like the time has flown by. I guess that is the mysterious nature of time: it can seem so long and so fast, all at the same time! And that gets me thinking about the even more profound mysteries of eternity. The Lord invites us to prepare for eternity, but part of that means that we must be okay with entering into mystery – things we can never fully comprehend. And it is the Mass where time and eternity intersect. Perhaps this weekend, we might meditate on this mystery of how the Sacred Mass unites all of us in time with the divine realities of eternity. And it is in the PRESENT that God makes Himself PRESENT to us – at the Mass.

God bless you all!

Fr. Redmond

From the Music office: Are you interested in joining our church choir but aren't ready to make a long-term commitment just yet? Good news: we are looking for singers and instrumentalists for our annual Christmas concert which will be held at St. John on Sunday 12/4 @ 3:00pm. Rehearsals begin on 9/22 at St. John (5:30 - 7:00pm) and run through November. For more information, rehearsal dates, and to express interest, please talk to Katie after mass or email her at musicministerkate@gmail.com.
