I N O R D I N A R Y T I M E

When he reached the place, Jesus looked up and said, "Zacchaeus, come down quickly, for today I must stay at your house." And he came down quickly and received him with joy. - Lk 19:5-6

Al llegar a ese lugar, Jesús levantó los ojos y le dijo: "Zaqueo, bájate pronto, porque hoy tengo que hospedarme en tu casa".
El bajó enseguida y lo recibió muy contento. - Lc 19, 5-6

From the Desk of the Pastor

The church as a family is seen in 3 groups: the church triumphant, referring to the saints glorified by the Lord; the church suffering, referring to the dead waiting in purgatory to reach God because of their sins, and the church militant, referring to those still on earth journeying with Christ so as to be glorified one-day.

In the month of November, the church remembers all the saints (1st November) and all souls (all the dead, 2nd November), as we pray to be accompanied by the saints on our journey to the Lord, and we as well pray for the dead because;

- in the light of judgement which comes after death, all human beings will be asked at the end at of their lives to give account on how they lived in this world (cf. Heb. 9:27; 2Cor 5:10; Mt. 25:31-46)

- By simply asking God to have mercy on them when he judges them, trusting that in his mercy, he will overlook their sins by our prayers for them in the light of our faith in God 's abundant mercy, for; i) "God does not deal with us according to our sins, nor requite us according to our iniquities since his steadfast love is great, and as far as the east is from the west, so far does he remove our transgressions from us" (ps. 103:10-12);

ii) "though your sins are like scarlet, they shall become white as snow" (Is.1:18)

- We believe that God's compassion extends beyond the grave and that is why we pray that his mercy will not be hard on those he judges so that he is merciful to all who have died.

This is the reason why throughout the month of November, we need to ask mass intentions for the soul of deceased loved ones in our families and friends.

FOR CHILDREN WHO WISH
