From the Desk of the Pastor

Dearly beloved,

Exactly a week from now will be Christmas, the awaited time of the birth of Jesus our Savior celebrated throughout the whole world.

During this time, be grateful to God for the great gift of His only begotten Son and appreciate what you have.

Be kind to others by treating them with respect and dignity.

Keep smiling by thinking positively and believing in yourself, as you stay strong by overcoming life's lumps and bumps.

Be constant in prayer and abound in love for your family and friends

On this note, I would like to thank you all for your prayers and presence at my installation officially as your Pastor by Bishop Barry Knestout.

Together let's continue to arise and build God's church. (Neh. 2:20).

May He richly bless you and your families.

Fr. Maxwell.
