Need for Transportation

We have a parishioner looking for a driver in the Glen Allen area of Henrico County. A punctual and courteous personal driver is needed. It is a 15-minute trip, 2 times a day (Willow Lawn/Glen Allen). Attractive pay offered for reliable service. All interested drivers please contact, Sarah Mack at:
sarahsaukingmack@hotmail.com.

Contributions to the parishes

This week we received, from one donor, gifts that we were able to apply to the following projects:

- $2,000 to the Frank Parater statue, in support of his cause for canonization at Saint Patrick;
- $2,000 to begin the confessional project at Saint John;
- $2,000 for a new dishwasher at Saint Peter.

Many thanks for your continuous generosity. As you can see, we have varied ministries and needs. We welcome basic contributions to keep the “lights on” and “specific gifts” for unique projects. Much gratitude goes to our donors and friends. - Fr. Capuano

PASTOR'S WEEKLY REFLECTION

Thank you for your patience with the bulletin and weekly emails. The last couple of weeks, I have had to resend emails for the bulletin, because of omissions and oversights on my part. I apologize for my errors. No one needs more emails... I'm still learning how to "see" the media and technology in a way that will streamline our office efforts to communicate effectively. If you are frustrated, take it out on me, the bulletin layout and weekly emails are my creation, I take full ownership of the problems.

This week we head into the most solemn week of the liturgical year. This is an opportunity for you to enter deeply into the Mysteries of the Lord's Life, Death, and Resurrection. Holy Thursday is a focus on the institution of the Sacred Priesthood and the institution of the Most Holy Eucharist. Consider attending and spending some time at the altar of repose at Saint Patrick and Saint John after Mass, this is a participation in attending the Lord in the Garden of Gethemene. On Good Friday we spend time before the Cross of Salvation, let's bow before the Lord and offer a worthy adoration, placing those things before the Cross that are not of the Lord. At the Easter Vigil, we welcome men and women into the fold of the Catholic Church and welcome the Light of Lights, Who stands in the Upper Room once again and says "Peace be with you." Please consider taking advantage of the sacraments.

Thank you to all those who offer so much time and commitment to our parishes to prepare to worthily celebrate the liturgies of the Church. Please be assured of my prayers this week. May the good Lord bless you and your families. - Fr. Capuano

CLUSTER NEWS

East End Pregnancy Center - Baby Bottle Campaign is coming to a close, please return your bottles filled with change, cash or check. Thank you for participating!

Simple Ways to Leave a Legacy Gift

One of the simplest ways to leave a gift to our church is to use the beneficiary designation on savings and retirement accounts, as well as life insurance policies. These can be done with no cost, and typically only require us to sign a new beneficiary designation form.

Retirement assets and similar accounts are called Income in Respect of a Decedent (IRD) assets. This is taxable income that's earned during life but not received before death, so it is never included in an income tax return. This may be assets in Individual Retirement Accounts or 403(b) plans, accrued interest on Certificates of Deposit and savings bonds, non-qualified stock options, deferred payments of capital gains, or other income that is earned but not acquired.

In most cases, naming the church as the beneficiary of these types of assets gives the estate and heirs the best tax benefits, since it avoids both income and estate taxes.

UPDATE: Statue in honor of Frank Parater. We've had a couple people reach out offering gifts to help fund a statue of Frank Parater - thank you! I'm currently working with the vendor who constructed the bronze statue at Benedictine. I'm also working with a vendor who is supporting the restoration of the plaster statues at Saint Peter. A general estimate is a little over $3000 for a fiberglass statue, which is consistent with new statues, as companies have moved away from crafting in plaster. The idea is to model the colors and texture of the statue on the current statues in the Church. More to come, lots more planning is necessary; thank you for your interest and generosity. If you would like to contribute, please email: chancellor@richmonddiocese.org. You may make contributions by mail: "Cause of Frank Parater," Attn: Chancellor 7800 Carousel Lane, Richmond, VA 23294

Easter Food Basket Blessing. The Christian significance of Easter is symbolized in the items used and foods chosen for this special Easter tradition. Baskets are lined with a white cloth and filled with foods that will be eaten on Easter Sunday. Lastly, the basket is covered with white cloth, to symbolize the shroud in which Christ's body was wrapped.

Traditionally, the baskets are filled with: decorated hardboiled eggs (representing Christ's Resurrection); lamb-shaped butter or sugar (representing Christ as the "Lamb of God"); bread (reminding us that Jesus is the "Bread of Life"); meats, such as ham (symbolic of great joy and abundance), sausage (symbolic of God's favor and generosity), smoked bacon (symbolic of the overabundance of God's mercy), or lamb (representing Christ as the "Lamb of God"); salt (symbolic of prosperity and justice, and reminding us that we are "the salt of the earth"); cheese (symbolizing the moderation Christians should have at all times); horseradish, pepper, oil, and vinegar (symbolic of the Passion of Christ and the bitter herbs of the Passover); and wine (symbolic of the Blood of the Lord).

This long-honored tradition is both deeply symbolic and delightfully heart-warming. Children are eager to help prepare and decorate the family basket and proudly carry it into the church on Holy Saturday for the blessing. Some families prepare specially decorated baskets for their young children, filled with fruits, chocolate bunnies, or other treats to be blessed.

Please join us Holy Saturday morning, March 30, 2024 at 11:00 AM at St. John Highland Spring for a special blessing of your Easter baskets. We hope you can join us!

Una nota del Párroco Gracias por su paciencia con el boletín y los correos electrónicos semanales. Las últimas semanas he tenido que reenviar correos electrónicos para el boletín debido a omisiones y descuidos de mi parte. Pido disculpas por mis errores. Nadie necesita más correos electrónicos... Todavía estoy aprendiendo cómo "ver" los medios y la tecnología de una manera que agilice los esfuerzos de nuestra oficina para comunicarnos de manera efectiva. Si está frustrado, desquite conmigo, el diseño del boletín y los correos electrónicos semanales son mi creación. Esta semana nos adentramos en la semana más solemne del año litúrgico. Esta es una oportunidad para que usted entre profundamente en los Misterios de la vida, muerte y Resurrección del Señor. El Jueves Santo se centra en la institución del Sagrado Sacerdocio y la institución de la Santísima Eucaristía. Considere asistir y pasar algún tiempo en el altar de reposo en San Patricio y San Juan después de la Misa, esto es una participación en asistir al Señor en el Jardín de Gesthemene. El Viernes Santo pasamos un tiempo ante la Cruz de la Salvación, postrémonos ante el Señor y ofrezcamos una adoración digna, colocando ante la Cruz aquellas cosas que no son del Señor. En la Vigilia Pascual, damos la bienvenida a hombres y mujeres al redil de la Iglesia Católica y damos la bienvenida a la Luz de las Luces, el Rey de Reyes, que está una vez más en el Cenáculo y dice: "La paz sea con vosotros". Por favor considere aprovechar los sacramentos y acercarse más al Señor. Gracias a todos aquellos que ofrecen tanto tiempo y compromiso a nuestras parroquias para prepararse para celebrar dignamente las liturgias de la Iglesia. Tengan la seguridad de mis oraciones esta semana. Que el buen Dios los bendiga a ustedes y a sus familias. - P. Capuano
