THE PASTOR'S WEEKLY REFLECTION/ REFLEXIÓN SEMANAL DEL PÁRROCO*de mortis regno*

In the third scrutiny prayed over the Elect this weekend, we pray for the gift of life so that they may be saved de mortis regno, from the kingdom of death. This evocation from the heart of the Church should cause the mind to turn to a parallel found elsewhere in the pious inheritance of Marian theology, the "veil of tears" noted in the great Marian antiphon the Salve Regina.

The Resurrection of Christ is a gift offered to each of us to be unpacked - that it might stand starkly against the backdrop of so much in our world that leads to a "culture of death." We're so used to being impacted by the consequences of sin that we too easily ignore our venial, simple, sins, often excusing them as having little impact on our daily lives.

This week, let's ask for a renewed vision to be aware of where we allow the "kingdom of death" to pervade our outlook and how it can discline us from the virtue of hope and the possibility of a true restoration of the gift of life offered by Our Lord.

COMMUNITY NEWSVespers at Saint Patrick

Join us for the final Lenten Vespers at Saint Patrick on April 9 at 6:00 PM.

A soup supper will follow in the hall, and we'd love your help with opening and closing. Please contact Fr. Capuano if you're interested in assisting.

Your participation is key to creating a welcoming fellowship for all. Thank you.

Saint John's Lenten Dinners
Friday - 5-7 PM

Join us for the last St. John Lenten dinner of the season this Friday. We're incredibly grateful for your support over the past five weeks. Come enjoy one final delicious meal with us - we'd love to have you there!
Thank you!

Chrism Mass - Monday, April 14, 6:00 PM
Cathedral of the Sacred Heart

Please consider joining the Bishop and the priests of the diocese for the annual celebration. In this Mass, the bishop will bless and consecrate Holy Oil and the priests will renew their promises to serve the Church with the Heart of Jesus.

Free parking is available at the parking deck at the corner of Laurel and Main, one block to the south of the Cathedral.

de mortis regno

En el tercer escrutinio que se reza sobre los Elegidos este fin de semana, pedimos el don de la vida para que sean salvados de mortis regno, del reino de la muerte. Esta evocación desde el corazón de la Iglesia debería llevarnos a un paralelo que encontramos en otras partes de la piadosa herencia de la teología mariana: el "velo de lágrimas" mencionado en la gran antífona mariana, la Salve Regina.

La Resurrección de Cristo es un don que se nos ofrece a cada uno para que lo analicemos, para que se destaque con claridad en el contexto de tantas cosas en nuestro mundo que conducen a una "cultura de la muerte". Estamos tan acostumbrados a ser impactados por las consecuencias del pecado que ignoramos con demasiada facilidad nuestros pecados veniales, simples, y a menudo los excusamos por tener poco impacto en nuestra vida diaria.

Esta semana, pidamos una visión renovada para ser conscientes de dónde permitimos que el "reino de la muerte" invada nuestra perspectiva y cómo puede apartarnos de la virtud de la esperanza y de la posibilidad de una verdadera restauración del don de la vida que nos ofrece Nuestro Señor.

Cuenten con mis oraciones esta semana.

COMMUNITY NEWSShare Easter Joy with St. Francis Home Residents!

This Easter season, let's bring joy and kindness to the residents of St. Francis Home! We invite families to write Easter cards with warm messages of hope and love to brighten the day of those who may not have loved ones nearby. Please join us as we deliver these cards and treats on Easter Saturday, April 19th, at 10:30 AM. We will meet at the St. Francis Home located at 65 W. Clopton Street, Richmond.

Please bring your completed cards to St. Patrick's by Palm Sunday, April 13th. There will be a basket in the social hall to place them. Thank-you for helping us share the spirit of Christ's love this Easter!

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY AT SAINT JOHN
3:00 PM, Sunday, April 20th

Mark your calendars for an incredible opportunity to experience God's mercy! Join us as we celebrate the Jubilee of Divine Mercy. This is a powerful moment to come together in prayer, reflection, and healing. Priests will be available for confession, so don't miss out on this special chance to receive God's forgiveness and grace. We will also be chanting the Divine Mercy Chaplet this year. We look forward to seeing you there as we embrace His mercy in a truly meaningful way.

COMMUNITY NEWS

CRS Rice Bowl
CALLED TO SHARE BREAD FOR LIFE

Holy Week, a sacred time in the liturgical year, invites us to journey with Christ through his Passion, Death and Resurrection. As we witness the Last Supper and Jesus' gift of the Eucharist, we are reminded of our call to be bread broken for others.

Let us draw strength from the Bread of Life and dedicate ourselves to serving our sisters and brothers who bear heavy crosses, bringing hope and the joy of the resurrection to the world.

Visit crsricebowl.org/holy-week to learn more.

Please remember to return your rice bowl by Holy Thursday.

Baby Bottle Campaign

Thank you so much for participating in our Baby Bottle Campaign. Your support is making a difference in the lives of those who rely on the East End Pregnancy Center for critical care and support.

If you've filled your bottle with spare change, now is the time to return it. Every penny counts in helping this incredible cause continue to provide medical, educational, material, and spiritual care to women and men facing pregnancy decisions.

We truly appreciate your generosity and commitment to saving lives. Please bring back your filled bottle at your earliest convenience so we can continue to support the East End Pregnancy Center.

SAINT PATRICK

Stations of the Cross: Don't forget! Stations of the Cross at 12:00 PM on Thursdays, following the morning Bible Study. A simple soup lunch will follow.

Parish Office: We're aiming for a May 15 soft opening of the parish office and an anticipated June 1 hard opening. Please stay tuned, thank you for your generosity in support of the parish.

Assistance at Mass: We're in need of liturgical assistance for the weekend: Sacristans, Lectors and Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion. If you are a Catholic in good standing (practicing your faith and in a marriage recognized by the Church), consider whether this opportunity is right for you. Please contact Fr. Capuano for more information.

April 5 & 6 is Sharing Sunday Weekend. Please drop off your non-perishable food and clothes donations at St. Patrick Parish Hall before or after Mass on Saturday or Sunday. Your monthly donations are collected each 1st weekend of the month at St. Patrick Church to support the food pantry and Clothes Closet at The Pro-Cathedral of Saint Peter.

Blessing of Easter Baskets

Please join Fr. Redmond on Holy Saturday morning (April 19th) at St. John Highland Springs at 11:00 AM for a special blessing of the Easter Baskets. Please bring your baskets, Easter eggs, breads, cooking oils & other food items. This is a special tradition from Eastern Europe that has gained widespread practice here in the United States. We hope you can join us!

MUSIC AT SAINT PATRICK AND SAINT JOHN

Continuing in our discussion of the Order of Mass, the final sections of the Mass include Communion, Prayer after Communion, and the Concluding Rites [Blessing & Dismissal]. The first option in the General Instruction of the Roman Missal for singing at Communion is, “the antiphon from the Missal.” This antiphon, plus the accompanying Psalm, which textually meditates on the theme of the antiphon, is sung by the choir alone. It may be sung by the people and the congregation. At our parishes, if we printed a program each week for Mass, we might become in the practice of the congregation singing the antiphon with the choir. The text of the Communion antiphon is almost always a quotation from the Gospel of the day, continuing the themes and motifs of the liturgy, and functioning to connect the Liturgy of the Word to the Liturgy of the Eucharist. “When the distribution of Communion is over, if appropriate, the Priest and faithful pray quietly for some time. If desired, a hymn may be sung” (GIRM No. 88).

Ready for Incredible Graces ?

“On that day ALL the divine floodgates through which graces flow are opened.”

Jesus to St. Faustina

Then Divine Mercy Sunday 2000

25th Anniversary

St. Faustina Kowalska (1905-1938)

On the first Sunday after Easter in the Great Jubilee of 2000, Pope St. John Paul II canonized Sr. Maria Faustina Kowalska, the Secretary and Apostle of Divine Mercy.

To the delight of millions worldwide, he also fulfilled the Lords repeated requests that this day be known and celebrated as the Feast of Mercy, a day of great grace for the entire world.

The Holy Father proclaimed that from then on, the Second Sunday of Easter would be called Divine Mercy Sunday throughout the Universal Church.

“The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion will obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment.”
“Let no soul fear to draw near to me even though its sins be as scarlet.”

Now Divine Mercy Sunday 2025

Jubilee of Youth

On Divine Mercy Sunday this year, during the Jubilee Year of Hope, Pope Francis will canonize Carlo Acutis, the first millennial saint who died in 2006 at the age of 15.

An Italian tech-savvy teenager, Carlo is known for his great devotion to the True Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist and has been called the “patron of the internet.”

It is held by many that the intercession of this beloved young saint will be a source of hope, conversion, and revival, particularly among the youth.

Jubilee Year of Hope Indeed!
