THE ADMINISTRATOR'S WEEKLY REFLECTION/ REFLEXIÓN SEMANAL DEL ADMINISTRATOR

In the gospel this Sunday, Jesus revealed the heart of prayer as a personal and trusting relationship with God. When the disciples asked Him to teach them how to pray, He did not give them a formula filled with lofty words—He gave them the Our Father, a simple yet powerful prayer that expressed our daily dependence on God. It reminds us that prayer is not just about asking for things, but about aligning our hearts with the will of the Father. Through prayer, we acknowledge God's holiness, seek His kingdom, ask for daily sustenance, forgiveness, and the strength to forgive. It is an act of humility, surrender, and trust.

Jesus then taught us the value of persistence in prayer. He shared to us the story of someone knocking on a friend's door at midnight, showing that prayer is not a one-time act but a continuous seeking, asking, and knocking. God is not distant or indifferent—He is a loving Father who hears every prayer, even those spoken in silence. When we persist, we demonstrate faith, hope, and a desire to grow closer to Him. And though God may not always answer in the way we expect, He promises to give what is best—especially the gift of the Holy Spirit. Prayer, then, is not just about changing our situation—it's about letting God change our hearts.

Fr. Joseph Indadaño

En el Evangelio de este domingo, Jesús revela que el corazón de la oración es una relación personal y confiada con Dios. Cuando los discípulos le pidieron que les enseñara a orar, Él no les dio una fórmula con palabras elevadas, sino que les dio el Padre Nuestro, una oración sencilla pero poderosa que expresa nuestra dependencia diaria de Dios. Nos recuerda que orar no es solo pedir cosas, sino alinear nuestro corazón con la voluntad del Padre. A través de la oración, reconocemos la santidad de Dios, buscamos su Reino, pedimos el pan de cada día, el perdón y la fuerza para perdonar. Es un acto de humildad, entrega y confianza.

Jesús también nos enseñó el valor de la perseverancia en la oración. Compartió la historia de alguien que toca a la puerta de un amigo a medianoche, mostrando que la oración no es un acto único, sino un constante buscar, pedir y llamar. Dios no está distante ni es indiferente — es un Padre amoroso que escucha cada oración, incluso aquellas que se elevan en silencio. Cuando perseveramos, demostramos fe, esperanza y deseo de acercarnos más a Él. Y aunque Dios no siempre responda como esperamos, Él promete darnos lo mejor, especialmente el don del Espíritu Santo. La oración, entonces, no solo cambia nuestra situación — permite que Dios transforme nuestro corazón.

An underground prayer apostolate where your hidden acts and unseen sacrifices are the very things that empower the ministry of Catholic priests, deacons, and lay leaders. Consider your circumstances a unique type of "cloister" in the springtime of a new evangelization. When you plant a Magdala Grove, you give meaning to your mental load, bottle up your invisible labor, and provide welcome shade for those laboring in the heat of Lord's Vineyard. You'll never look at the phrase "offer it up" the same way again. Check it out: <https://www.magdalagrove.com>.

SAINT PATRICK

Sacristan Training

We are in need of sacristan to assist in setting up for Mass. If you've been curious about what goes on behind the scene to prepare for Mass, please text Billie Keating (804) 347-7919 or Pam Lieberman (804) 869-0794, who will connect you with one of our parish priests for training. Sacristan duties are once a month. A current sacristan will shadow you until you're comfortable with the role. Thank so much for considering!

Mass Intentions at St. Patrick's

To request a Saturday or Sunday Mass at St. Patrick's in memory of a loved one or to honor a special occasion, please call the parish office at (804) 344-8140 with the name(s), occasion, and preferred date. A small donation is appreciated but not required.

Sharing Sunday Weekend is August 2 and 3

Please drop off your non-perishable food and wearable clothes donations at St. Patrick Parish Hall before or after Mass on Saturday or Sunday. Food and clothes donations are collected each 1st weekend of the month at St. Patrick Church to support the Food Pantry and Clothes Closet at St. Peter Pro-Cathedral on Grace Street. Thank you in advance for your kind consideration and thoughtfulness toward the less fortunate of our community.

Assistance at Mass: We're in need of liturgical assistance for the weekend: Sacristans, Lectors and Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion. If you are a Catholic in good standing (practicing your faith and in a marriage recognized by the Church), consider whether this opportunity is right for you. Please contact Fr. Redmond for more information.

COMMUNITY NEWS

Religious Education Registration is Now Open!

As we prepare for a new year of faith and formation at St. Patrick's and St. John's, we invite all families to register their children for our Religious Education program — a journey of love, learning, and growing in Christ. To ensure every student receives the needed materials, please register as soon as possible. Pick up a form after Mass or register online through our parish websites. Questions? Call us: 804-737-8028 or email us: restpatrick@richmondcluster.org pmatheny@richmondcluster.org. Come grow with us.

Volunteers Needed for Religious Education Program

The new school year is just around the corner, and we're excited to begin another year of faith formation. Our parishes St. Patrick and St. John is currently seeking volunteers to help with our Religious Education Program. No teaching experience is needed — lessons are easy to follow, and training will be provided. All you need is a desire to help, a love for our faith, and to be in communion with the Church. If you feel called to serve, we would love to have you join us in guiding our children on their faith journey. To learn more or to volunteer, please email us at restpatrick@richmondcluster.org or pmatheny@richmondcluster.org

Interested in Becoming Catholic?

Curious about the Catholic faith or thinking of becoming Catholic? The Order of Christian Initiation for Adults (OCIA) is a welcoming journey for adults seeking Baptism, Confirmation, Eucharist, or simply wanting to learn more.

Whether you're just exploring or ready to take the next step, we're here with prayer, support, and community. Want to learn more? 804-737-8028 or email us: officestpeter@richmondcluster.org, officestpatrick@richmondcluster.org, officestjohn@richmondcluster.org. Come and see — we'd be honored to walk with you.
